American Red Cross will do antibody testing for blood donors

The American Red Cross is testing all blood, platelet and plasma donations for COVID-19 antibodies, providing donors insight into whether they have been exposed to the coronavirus. At the same time, there continues to be an urgent need for blood donations as hospitals resume surgeries and treatments that require blood products.

Antibody testing will indicate if the donor's immune system has produced antibodies to this coronavirus, regardless of whether they developed symptoms. Donations will be tested using samples pulled at the time of donation and sent to a testing laboratory where they will also undergo routine infectious disease testing. A positive antibody test result does not confirm infection or immunity.

COVID-19 antibody test results will be available within 7-10 days in the Red Cross Blood Donor App or donor portal at RedCrossBlood.org. The test has been authorized for emergency use by the U.S. Food and Drug Administration.

"As an organization dedicated to helping others, the Red Cross is pleased to provide more information about COVID-19 to our valued donors," said Dr. Erin Goodhue, executive medical director of direct patient care with the Red Cross Biomedical Services. "If you are feeling healthy and well, please schedule an appointment to not only help save lives but also learn about your potential exposure to COVID-19."

The Red Cross is not testing donors to diagnose illness, referred to as a diagnostic test.

Blood is needed every day to treat patients with a variety of urgent and routine medical care. The Red Cross supports patients at nearly 3,000 hospitals nationwide and 40 hospitals in Central Ohio.

Donation appointments can be made by downloading the free Blood Donor App, visiting RedCrossBlood.org, calling 1-800-RED CROSS (1-800-733-2767) or enabling the Blood Donor Skill on any Alexa Echo device. Thanks to Amazon, all those who come to give June 1-30 will receive a $5 Amazon.com gift card via email. Those who give with the Red Cross in Central Ohio can also receive a buy one get one free entry coupon to the Columbus Zoo and Aquarium.

To protect the health and safety of Red Cross staff and donors, individuals who do not feel well or who believe they may be ill with COVID-19 should postpone their donation.

Each Red Cross blood drive and donation center follows the highest standards of safety and infection control, and additional precautions - including temperature checks, social distancing and face coverings for donors and staff - have been implemented to help protect the health of all those in attendance. Donors are asked to schedule an appointment prior to arriving at the drive and are required to wear a face covering or mask while at the drive, in alignment with Centers for Disease Control and Prevention public guidance.

MRCPL moves ahead with plans to re-open to the public

The Mansfield/Richland County Public Library will reopen all nine locations beginning Monday, June 22 with some new restrictions based on the continued guidance of Richland Public Health, Ohio Department of Health and the CDC.

In addition, the First Call 211 lobby will also re-open to the public on June 22.

All MRCPL locations closed for service on March 17, based on recommended restrictions due to the COVID-19 pandemic. On May 11, MRCPL began Phase 1 of the opening process by welcoming back staff and accepting the return of materials that had been checked out prior to closure.

On May 18, MRCPL began Phase 2 of reopening by offering Curbside Service to customers while still maintaining the closure of all branches to the public.

MRCPL Library Director, Chris May, announced that beginning June 22, MRCPL is beginning Phase 3 and re-opening all library branches for public access with new safety procedures for staff and patrons in place.

All nine MRCPL locations will be open with temporary modified hours.

Main Library, Monday-Thursday, 10 am to 6 pm; Friday, 10 am to 5 pm; and Sunday, 10 am to 2 pm.

Branch libraries will be open Monday, Tuesday, Thursday, 10 am to 6 pm; Wednesday, Friday, 10 am to 5 pm; and Saturday, 10 am to 2 pm. First Call 211 Lobby hours: Monday through Friday, 9 am to 4 pm.

Library branches will be managed with a maximum capacity of 50 percent inside the building, monitored by library staff to ensure occupancy levels.

MRCPL completed installation of Plexiglass shields at high-traffic customer service areas, hand sanitizing stations and floor markers to ensure the safety of patrons and employees.

Some library services that require close person-to-person interaction or present concerns about maintaining sanitized surfaces will not be offered at this time.

Leisure reading, studying and meeting at the library will be discouraged during Phase 3. Study rooms and meeting rooms will remain closed to the public. Passport and notary services are suspended until further notice. All in-person programming remains canceled during this phase as well.

The curbside service (www.mrcpl.org/summer-2020) will remain temporarily available to patrons at each location. Through this service, library patrons put books on hold via the library website and pick them up at their local branch via Curbside Pick Up Service.

MRCPL will also offer additional curbside services as well as some new virtual programming this summer.

Patrons should view the Summer 2020 webpage (www.mrcpl.org/summer-2020) and calendar (www.mrcpl.org/calendar) as well as follow Mansfield/Richland County Public Library on social media platforms for continued announcements, updates and information.

Limited public computer service will be available at all nine locations. In-depth, one-on-one assistance will not be available due to social distancing guidelines. Stations will be sanitized after each use.

All of the library staff will be required to follow safety and health guidelines recommended by Richland Public Health and the Ohio Department of Health.

It is also asked that patrons refrain from coming to the library if they are experiencing symptoms of COVID-19, that they wear a face covering while in the library, and that children ages 12 and under are accompanied by an adult at all times.

Visit www.mrcpl.org/COVID-19 for a full list of Phase 3 reopening guidelines. As always, MRCPL offers 24/7 access to online resources including eBooks, audiobooks, magazines, movies, learning databases, and much more via the use of a Digital Services eCard (link to <https://www.mrcpl.org/services/front-desk/get-a-digital-services-ecard>).

Changes made to Lexington graduation

The Lexington High School Administrative Team has been planning for several weeks to have numerous plan options in place for if the restriction of mass gatherings was lifted.

The best scenario would be to hold graduation in the football stadium. The team certainly looked at this plan, but would need two days prior to prepare the stage and seating. This will be the number one option if the governor lifts the mass gathering restrictions by June 25.

The second best plan would be to hold graduation in the student lot across from the high school on Clever Ln. This idea was considered three months ago, but all school facilities were deemed closed. Storyside Church approached the team to provide an alternative to graduation but the team prefers that graduates be able to walk across the stage at LHS.

At this time, graduation is planned for Saturday, June 27, at 2 pm, at the student parking lot across from the school. The same guidelines will be maintained (one car per graduate).

If the Governor lifts the mass gathering restriction, and the school gets the green light from the health department by June 25, a notification will be sent via the Remind App that graduation will be moved to the stadium.

The Entertainment Examiner

By Ian Stumbo

HBO recently premiered a well done TV movie based on the biggest embezzlement scandal in the history of schooling — Bad Education. Hugh Jackman stars in one of his best performances as Dr. Frank Tassone, a superintendent for a Long Island school district which, since his time there, has put the district in the top five in the entire country. He is well loved by students, parents and teachers.

It turns out Frank is not who he says or does business like anyone thinks. When doing research for a new walkway the school is building, a young student writing for the school's newspaper uncovers shady dealings and strange monetary movements in some of the public record.

Soon, Frank and another employee at the school Pam Gluckin (Allison Janney) are trying to get out from under the fact that they have stolen millions.

Hugh Jackman is one of those actors that can do so many things but this movie is such a showcase for his talents. He deserves to be nominated for awards as this man who has everyone in the palm of his hand and then his whole life starts to crumble. Jackman plays this part well also balancing another subplot where Tassone had convinced everyone his wife has died but in fact was a gay man hiding his lifestyle.

Jackman and Janney do terrific work and also Ray Romano is certainly worth mentioning as the head of the school board who is blindsided by all of this. The real Tassone and Gluckin went to prison for their crimes but how this all unfolded from a student writing an article is very interesting and director Cory Finley does a fine job telling the story.

Seek out Bad Education if you are a fan of true crime stories like this as Jackman, Janney and Romano all deliver fine performances. The movie itself is good but nothing to overly praise about.

It goes along like most true stories usually do, however it's one certainly to watch.

Shrimp Scampi over a Polenta Filled Tomato

By Kim Sterry

In Kimmiscucina we always love the way that recipes come together! For this one, we began talking about a stuffed tomato. We didn't really know what we were going to use for our stuffing and began talking about different salad options, well as you can see, we are far from that thought. We love to talk about food and the many options that you have when you are developing a recipe. We hope you love this as much as we do, it was definitely a hit and will be on the menu again. We made this the other night when we had one of the first few nice evenings to be outside, so of course, this made it taste so much better. Kimmiscucina LOVES to be dining Al Fresco!

Ingredients

- 2-3 lbs shrimp We used extra large (peeled & deveined)
- 2 cups Semolina
- 1/2 cup Parmesan Cheese
- 2 cups Polenta Prepared as per package instructions
- 4-5 Roma Tomatoes Cut in half and scoop out center
- 2 cups Olive Oil
- 5 cloves garlic
- 1 lemon Zest and Juice
- Salt & Pepper

Instructions

1. Prepare polenta according to package instructions. (See Note Below) When cool enough to handle fill tomatoes. (you can prepare the polenta well ahead and have this all done, you would just need to allow the extra cooking time if polenta was cooled). Put stuffed tomatoes on an oiled baking sheet and cook at 350 for 15 minutes (or until heated through and tomatoes begin to soften).
2. If you haven't toasted your sourdough bread, now is a good time to do that. Just brush with olive oil and sprinkle with some salt and pepper and put in 325 oven for 10-15 minutes, watch and turn half-way through.
3. In a saucepan add the olive oil and garlic, heat until garlic is soft and can be mashed down. Keep the temperature on low and add lemon juice and zest. Keep warm and set aside
4. Mix semolina and parmesan in a bag or large dish. (I like to use a bag for easy cleanup). Put shrimp into semolina mixture and coat well. Put on an oiled baking sheet. Set Aside.
5. In a 350 degree oven bake the shrimp for 6-12 minutes, turning half-way through.
6. To assemble, you can do this on individual plates or on a large platter. Lay the sourdough bread down, add the polenta stuffed tomato and then top with a shrimp. Scatter additional shrimp around the plate. Drizzle with the garlic oil and you are ready to serve. Shave some fresh parmesan cheese over the top.

Notes: You have some options when you prepare your Polenta. Your instructions will tell you to use water. If you would like some more flavor, you can use chicken or vegetable broth. For this particular recipe, I used something I had left over from another recipe, which included a mixture of chicken broth, white wine and some butter. Your possibilities are endless.

Ontario Board approves agreements, employments for next school year

The Ontario Board of Education met on June 9. The board recognized Tod Petit's Safety Patrollers, William Wang, Kalie Chandler and Grace Holzmillner, for their induction into the AAA Safety Patrol Hall of Fame.

Mike Ream, Ontario Director of Education, gave an update on Curriculum, Instruction and Assessment and an update on the COVID-19 parent/staff survey results.

The board approved rescinding the Resolution declaring an emergency and modifying procedures for board meeting. Public transportation was temporarily suspended due to Governor DeWine's Stay Safe Ohio Order which limited gatherings to 10 people or less.

A public hearing regarding the rehiring of retired employee Lisa Carmichael as superintendent for the 2020-'21 school year was held. Hearing participants were Tom Beck, Andy Foss, Deb Muncy, Herb Muncy, Anita Them, Terance Trammell, Sam VanCura and Sue Wentz.

Cleveland Clinic Children's ranked among nation's best

Cleveland Clinic Children's has been named a national leader in clinical care, according to U.S. News & Report's 2020 - 2021 "Best Children's Hospitals" rankings.

Cleveland Clinic Children's - an integral part of Cleveland Clinic, which was ranked as the nation's No. 4 hospital in 2019 by U.S. News - earned national recognition in 10 specialties: cancer (17), cardiology and heart surgery (15), diabetes and endocrinology (44), gastroenterology and GI surgery (12), neonatology (14), nephrology (35), neurology and neurosurgery (25), orthopedics (26), pulmonology (32) and urology (23).

For 12 consecutive years, Cleveland Clinic Children's has ranked among the nation's top 50 pediatric hospitals. This year, four of those specialties ranked in the top 20 in the nation (cancer, gastroenterology and GI surgery, neonatology, and cardiology and heart surgery) and seven of those specialties ranked as best in Northeast Ohio (cancer, cardiology and heart surgery, gastroenterology and GI Surgery, neonatology, nephrology, neurology and neurosurgery, and urology). No children's hospital in Northeast Ohio ranked in more specialties than Cleveland Clinic Children's.

"We are incredibly honored to be recognized by U.S. News & World Report," said Karen Murray, M.D., chair of Cleveland Clinic Children's. "This is a reflection of the dedication, compassion and hard work of our caregivers to provide the best, high-quality care to our patients and their families. While COVID-19 has transformed our world and the healthcare industry, it has not and will not impact our mission to continue to provide world class care."

Over the past year, Cleveland Clinic Children's has been at the forefront of clinical innovation and research in pediatrics. Hospital highlights include:

- A multidisciplinary team of specialists repaired spina bifida birth defect prior to birth, in a nearly 23-week-old fetus.

- An innovative split-liver and heart transplant surgery gave a young patient a second chance at life, with the best outcomes in the region.

- Magnetic spinal rods help improve outcomes and quality of life for young patients with scoliosis.

- A groundbreaking study showed that holding off a newborn's first bath - 12 hours or more after birth - can improve breastfeeding rates.

- A large data-mining study showed that digital conversations provide a needed emotional outlet for teens and adults coping with epilepsy.

Cleveland Clinic has cared for infants, children, and adolescents since its doors first opened in 1921. Now, it's more than 300 pediatric specialists and subspecialists - and more than 50 outpatient sites - provide the full spectrum of primary, specialty, and subspecialty pediatric care to the largest patient population of any children's hospital in Northeast Ohio, and does so with the highest level of family-oriented care, as close to home as possible.

All visitors will be required to wear a mask while in an OhioHealth facility, except while eating, and be asymptomatic of COVID-19 symptoms.

The following exceptions will be made for patients in unique medical situations:

- Patients that have tested positive for COVID-19. No visitors allowed with exceptions for end-of-life situations.
- No visitors allowed for behavioral health patients.
- Patients receiving end-of-life care. Acute end-of-life patients may have up to three visitors at any given time,

• Visitors with disabilities who need assistance. Caretakers for visitors who are disoriented, disabled or in need of an interpreter are permitted.

• Maternity patients are limited to one support person, who may stay at the hospital for duration of the stay, but if they exit, they will need to re-enter next day. If the mother is a minor, she may have a parent or guardian visitor in addition to the father of the baby. Care sites with NICUs will follow Nationwide Children's Hospital visitor management policy.

This is the first easing of visitor restrictions at OhioHealth since the health system restricted all visitors on March 16. Hydrant flushing will continue Springfield Township Fire Chief Matthew Carey has announced that the fire department, in cooperation with the Ontario Water Department, has begun flushing fire hydrants which is critical to ensure the continued reliability of the city’s hydrants.

The flushing will normally occur Monday through Friday between the hours of 8 am and 4 pm. Some discoloration of water may occur. This is due to sediments and particulates in the water mains that are disturbed during flushing. Because of this, residents are strongly advised to not do laundry during these hours as this could lead to discoloration of clothes. The water is safe for drinking.

The water department has a special detergent available to remove rust stains from clothing that is inadvertently soiled.

The proposed schedule is:
 Week of June 15: Deer Ridge Ln, Deer View Cir., Victoria Ct., BenBrandon Ct., SpringVillage Ln. and Dr., Old Oak Trail, Fairway Crossing, Bogey Dr.

Week of June 22: Ferguson Rd. E. and W., Crestfield St., Whitney Ave., Fulwell Dr., Stumbo Rd., Sandlewood Dr.

Week of Aug. 17: Millsboro E. Rd., Mercer Ave. (off Chambers Rd. only), Make up as needed.

Weeks of Aug. 24 and Aug. 30: Make up as needed/repairs/TBD

Residents are asked not to plant shrubs or trees within five feet of a hydrant, as this can make it extremely difficult for firefighters to locate or operate a hydrant when needed. Residents with hydrants that are obscured will be asked to trim or remove the foliage.

For more information call the water department at 419-529-3815.

The Tribune Office will be closed June 25–July 8, please send news for the June 25 issue by Monday, June 22. There will be no issue for July 2.

Madison Adult Career Center held its annual summer graduation for students completing Career Development Programs during the 2019-'20 school year on Friday, June 12. The graduates deserved this celebration and recognition for their hard work and dedication to successfully completing their training program.

Students graduated from the following Career Development Programs: Administrative Medical Office, Medical Assisting Technologies, Advanced Cosmetology, Cosmetology, Dental Assisting, Industrial Electrical Maintenance, Phlebotomy/EKG, Precision Machining/CNC Technology, State Tested Nurse Aide, Welding Technology, and the Adult Diploma Program. Programs range from 96 to 1800 clock hours of training. All graduates earn an ACT WorkKeys National Career Readiness Credential (NCRC).

Madison Adult Career Center graduated 109 adult students this school year from the above Career Development Training Programs.

To qualify for graduation, students must:

• Most programs require externships or job shadows
The center's disclosures as reported on their 2019 accreditation annual report include a completion rate of 88% with 78% of completers working in the related field of their training and 92% of completers earning industry certification.

Madison Adult Career Center provides training to individuals who are unemployed, underemployed, dislocated workers, and employed individuals gaining new skills and/or upgrading their current skills. Programs enable students to complete their training, earn certifications and enter the workforce quickly.

Madison Adult Career Center is accredited by the Accrediting Commission of Career Schools and Colleges (ACCSC), an approved provider of post-secondary career technical education by the Ohio Department of Higher Education and a member of the Ohio Association of Career Technical and Adult Education (ACTE).

OMS girls will participate in MindSprouts Showcase

The Renaissance Education Department will host its ninth annual MindSprouts Creative Writing Showcase on Saturday, June 20, at 7 pm, and two Ontario Middle School sixth graders will be among those whose writing will be brought to life on stage, readers' theatre style.

The MindSprouts program is open to any student in kindergarten through twelfth grade, and Mrs. Murray encouraged her students to submit a short story, play, or poem that corresponded to the 2020 theme: "Magical Mysteries!"

Amber Parker wrote a short story titled "The Magical Wand," in which two middle schoolers find a magic wand in a tree and soon they are interacting with talking animals.

Aileena Young composed a short story titled "Believe." In it, a little girl named Marbella wants to know if the tooth fairy is real.

This year's showcase event will be held virtually. Catch it live free on the Renaissance's Facebook page or YouTube channel on Saturday, June 20, at 7 pm. In addition, the Renaissance Education Staff will be presenting Amber and Aileena with congratulatory certificates for their accomplishments.

Typically hosted live on stage at the Renaissance Theatre, the event was moved to a virtual platform in order to comply with Governor Mike DeWine's Executive Order earlier this year.

Each year, as a part of the MindSprouts Program, area K-12 teachers are invited to schedule a free in-class, "jump-start" workshop with Renaissance Teaching Artist Dauphne Maloney, trained by the John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts in Washington, D.C. However, since many previously scheduled workshops could not be held due to school closures, the deadline for entries was extended to allow for the transition of students to online classes.

Finalists included:

Kindergarten to second grade — Lucas Fennell, Reagan Elementary (Ashland): "The Mystery of the Mad Scientist"; Denver Kruty, Reagan Elementary (Ashland): "The Case of the Missing Zoo"; Ethan Jurjevic, Reagan Elementary (Ashland): "The Mystery Murders"; Joey Mecumber, Camden Kreiger, Zachary Jones, Colin Strine, Reagan Elementary (Ashland): "The Missing Dinosaur Skeleton"; Lily Richlovsky, St. Peter's Elementary: "Abracadabra!"; and Andi Sprague, Reagan Elementary (Ashland): "The Stolen Book."

Grades 3-5 — Ava Farinacci, Stingel Elementary: "The Stolen Secret"; Eva Hadsell, Camryn Hanning, Sophia Sandwall, Stingel Elementary: "Untitled"; Elise Lehew, Stingel Elementary: "The Twins"; Reese Miller, Stingel Elementary: "The Spy Squad"; Meredith Rizzo, St. Peter's Elementary: "Vandalism"; Alexander Simmering, Stingel Elementary: "Lost in Space"; Levi Walter, Stingel Elementary: "The Missing Museum"; Julianna Williams, St. Peter's Elementary: "Moonlight Fairy"; and Sydney Winner, St. Peter's Elementary: "Caught!"

Grades 6-12 — Olivia Laux, St. Peter's Elementary: "The Ceshier Family"; Amber Parker, Ontario Middle School: "The Magical Finalists"; and Aileena Young, Ontario Middle School: "Believe!"

MindSprouts is a part of the Mechanics Bank Education Series and with support by Altrusa International.
